The Faces of Odessa College . . .

Friendship . . .

*joy, laughter.
feeling security
of acceptance
yet confusion, love,
the whirling sphere
of life
only in college.*

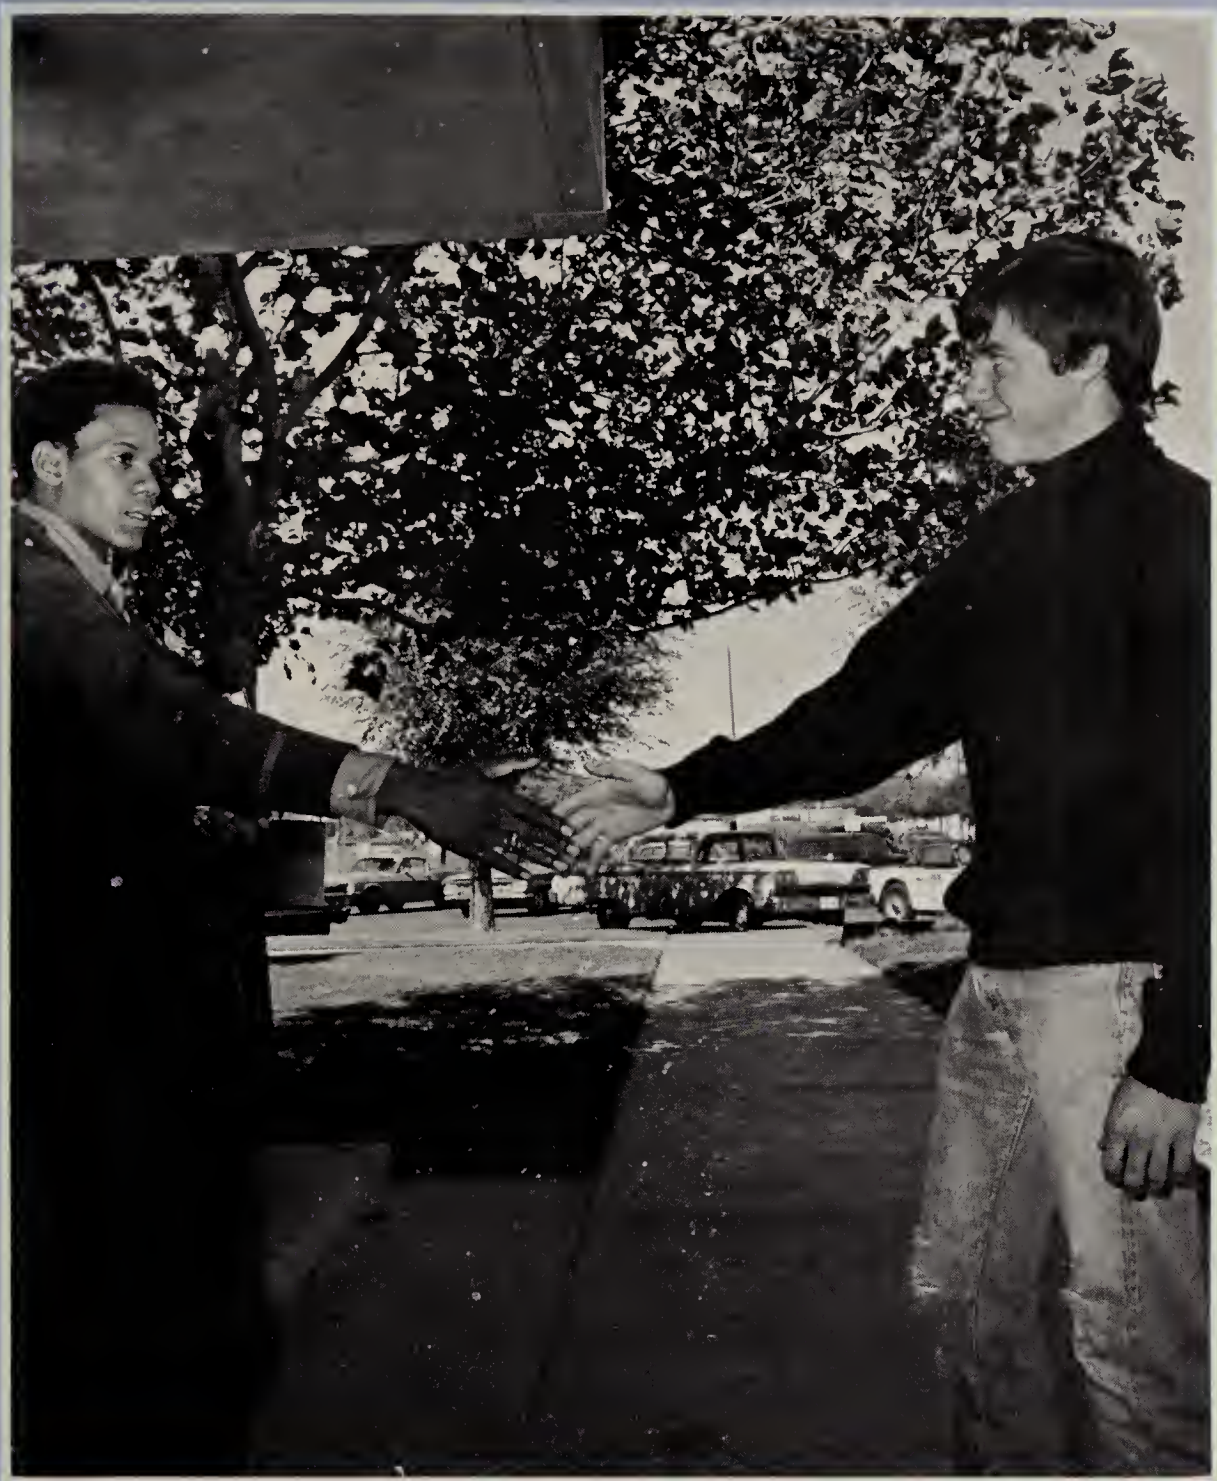

Entertainment . . .

lights the faces
of all it touches
with smiles,
exploding into laughter.
excitement of a new fad
'do your thing'
feel the wind
in your face.
hear the throb of the music, see the blinking lights,
feel your soul move.

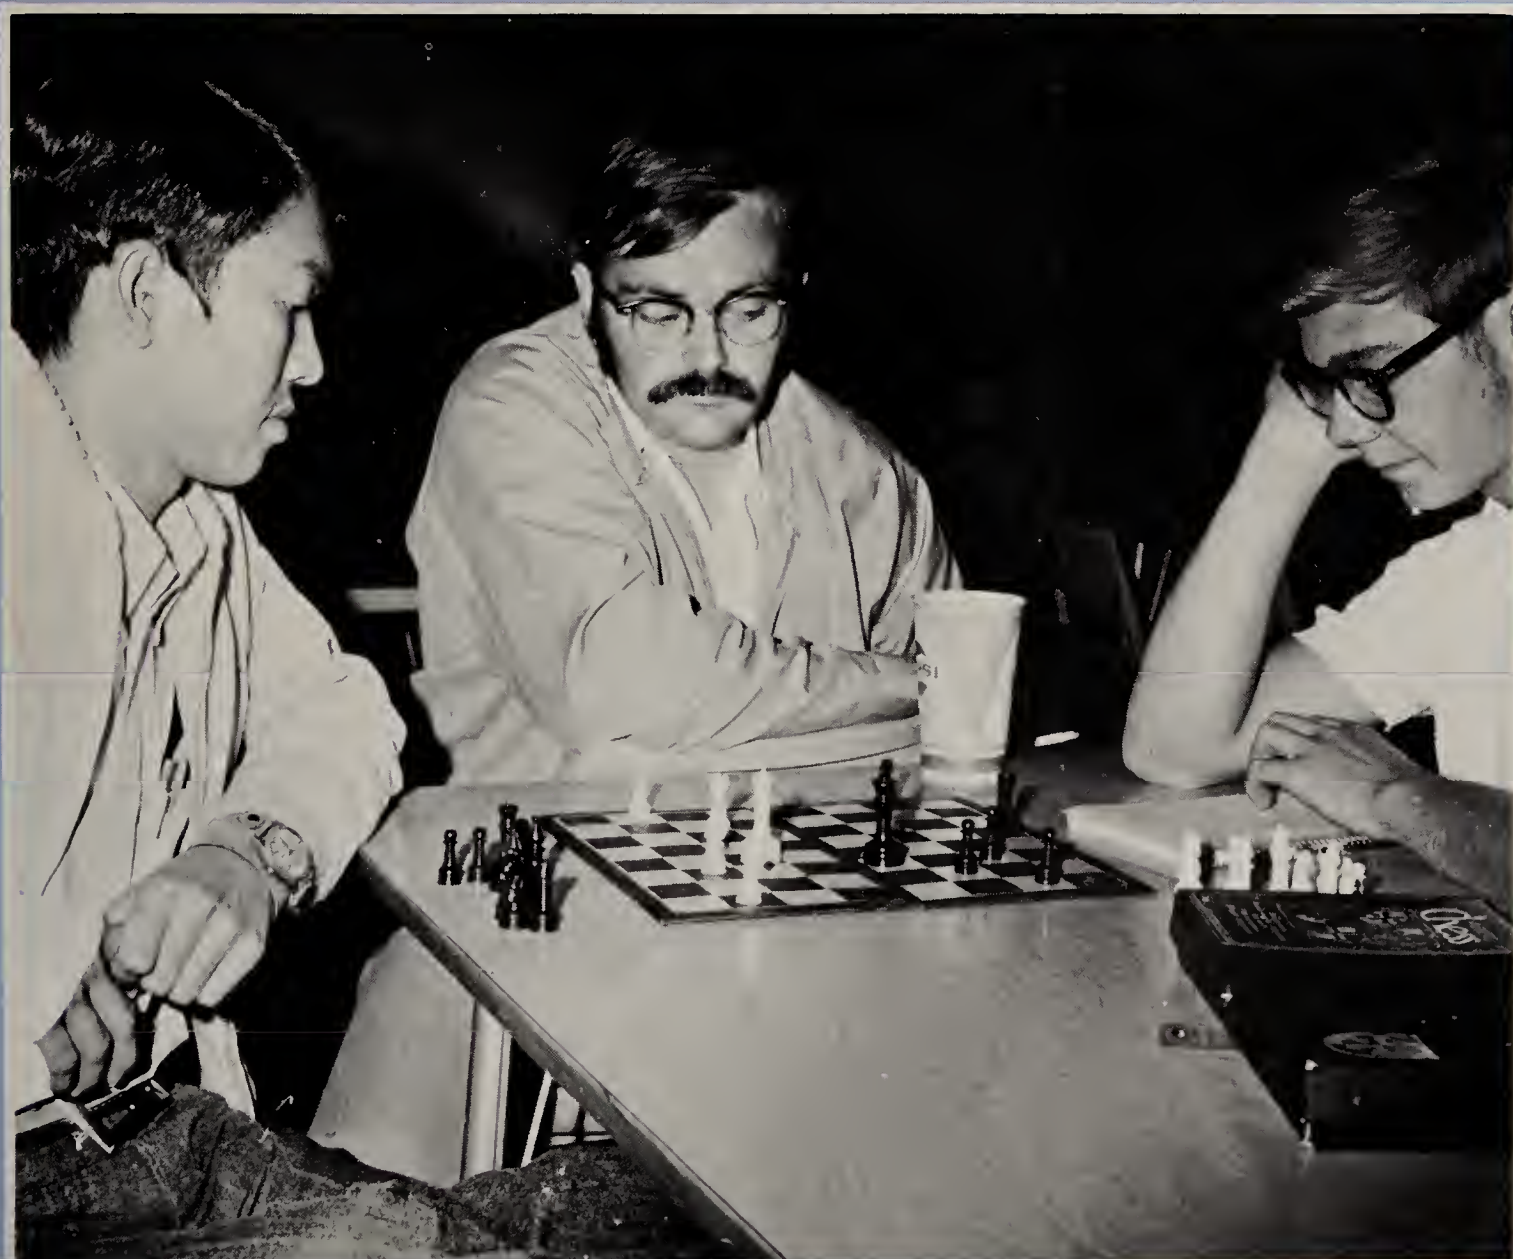

Understanding . . .

*like the cool tide
lapping at your face wraps its strong arm around you.
a smile, a nod,
a look
in a sea of scorn.
so sensitive,
yet so eager
for minds to meet.*

Confusion . . .

engulfs the world
at every turn,
flaring like danger . . .
what's next?
what's real?
it's so crowded
who's sure?

Fatigue . . .

*always lurking waiting to overcome
at the moment
when a clear mind is needed most.
study, pressure,
hurry, faster,
assignments, grades
work, tests.
no end.*

Commitment . . .

*is everywhere
as the mind is intrigued by words woven into stories
capturing the mind.
experiments giving a peek into the unknown, the truth,
the discovery.
the touch
something beautiful and real.*

CAMPUS LIFE

Those Were the Days My Friends . . .

OPPOSITE PAGE UPPER LEFT: One of the tiring duties of all OC students is making endless trips to the bookstore to stock up on textbooks and pamphlets required for class, in addition to searching for books to aid them in courses that prove to be a little more difficult than expected. This OC student thumbs through one of the hundreds of books in the OC Bookstore. OPPOSITE PAGE LOWER: Crisscrossing campus between classes is a familiar scene at OC. And it's a rare occasion that students hurry from one class to another without stopping to share a joke with friends or speculate on an upcoming test. OPPOSITE PAGE UPPER RIGHT: After enduring many long lines, signing endless forms, and paying out more money than they expected, two freshmen compare schedules after a hectic registration day. LEFT: Freshman Lynda Branson enjoys a few minutes away from the rigors of the academic schedule to contemplate the wonders of a tricycle. A little clowning around is necessary after a week when you have two research papers due and four major tests within three days.

New Buildings Help Beautify Campus

Two new buildings opened the fall semester to aid the teachings of technical and vocational courses. The Composite Technology Building and the Electronics Technology Building together compose 124,129 square feet of area. Modern design along with professional equipment and furnishings made learning comfortable and enjoyable.

Freshmen Attend Annual Orientation

The Many Faces of Registration

Faces of confusion, understanding, and astoundment appeared in the OC Sub during registration. On August 27 and 28 more than 3,800 students arrived for the hectic process. Step number one was to pick up IBM card packets and to make any schedule changes desired. After deciding on the proper course schedule, students continued through the lines and check points until reaching the final check. The next stop was the business office, where tuition and fees were paid. The lines then led the confused 3,800 into the gym to have pictures of their smiling faces taken for activity cards and the annual.

After the final stop at the bookstore the tired undergrads left as official OC students only to remember to save at least three hours of their time on January 14 and 15 when registration for the spring semester was scheduled.

Dances Reflect Mood of Times

The beat was strong, the music was loud, and the time was now. Many OC students found the Sub was the place to be and dancing was the thing to do. STUCO sponsored most of the dances where a variety of new dances appeared while local bands provided the music. Whole idea of the music, movement, and feeling reflected the mood of the times.

OC Homecoming Is Ball of Excitement

The spirit of campus life was captured in the Homecoming activities observed during February at OC. What was Homecoming? Homecoming was nominating candidates for the queen's title, and campaigning for the one who was your favorite. Homecoming was planning the events, and running the voting booth. It was going to the basketball game and seeing the big crowd that had turned out to watch the celebration . . . seeing new faces and familiar ones. It was watching the anticipation on the girls' faces as the time grew near for the queen to be crowned. It was laughing when the queen was kissed, watching the tears of joy flow, and hearing the shrieks of surprise rise in the air. It was seeing fellow students who had been chosen for Who's Who. It was following the excitement of the basketball game, then going to the dance to fall into the swing of the times. It was a big ball of excitement called Homecoming.

Musical Production Opens Spring Season

"Brigadoon," a musical written by the authors of "Camelot" and "My Fair Lady," is the first play of the spring. Under the direction of Joe Downs, this fantasy tells of a Scottish village that only appears for one day every 100 years.

Cheerleaders Boost Spirit

The voices, enthusiasm and encouragement of the six Odessa College cheerleaders helped bring victory to OC's athletic teams .

Bob Atchison, Olivia Cochran, Pat Daly, Kathy Jackson, Eloisa Lascano and Jerri Scroggins were elected 1970-71 cheerleaders early in the fall by the student body. Kathy earned the position of head cheerleader by receiving the most votes.

The cheerleaders practiced many hours each week for their performances at each competition the OC athletic teams entered.

For the first time this year the cheerleaders presented trophies to the boy and girl they felt had contributed the most to school spirit by attending games and participating in other school events .

Las Senioritas Serve As Cheering Section

Las Senioritas de las Rosas represented Odessa College as a dance and drill team. The group also served as a cheering section at OC's athletic events.

The girls learned skills in dance, drill, projection, and performance. Las Senioritas was noted for performing dance and marching routines with bull whips.

The traveling ambassadors of OC performed in Slaton, Kermit, Seminole, Hobbs, New Mexico, and Corpus Christi.

Lynne Miles served as major for the first semester, and Vicki Broadwell was major second semester. Other officers were Judi Halbert, Captain; Lorna Thomas, Adjutant Captain; Karen Heath, Lieutenant; and Pat Abbott, Adjutant Lieutenant. Gilda Gant was sponsor.

WRA Sponsors Volleyball Team

Odessa College's women's volleyball team was sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association. This year's squad took fourth place in district, losing only to Howard County, Sul Ross, and Texas Tech, the first, second and third place teams.

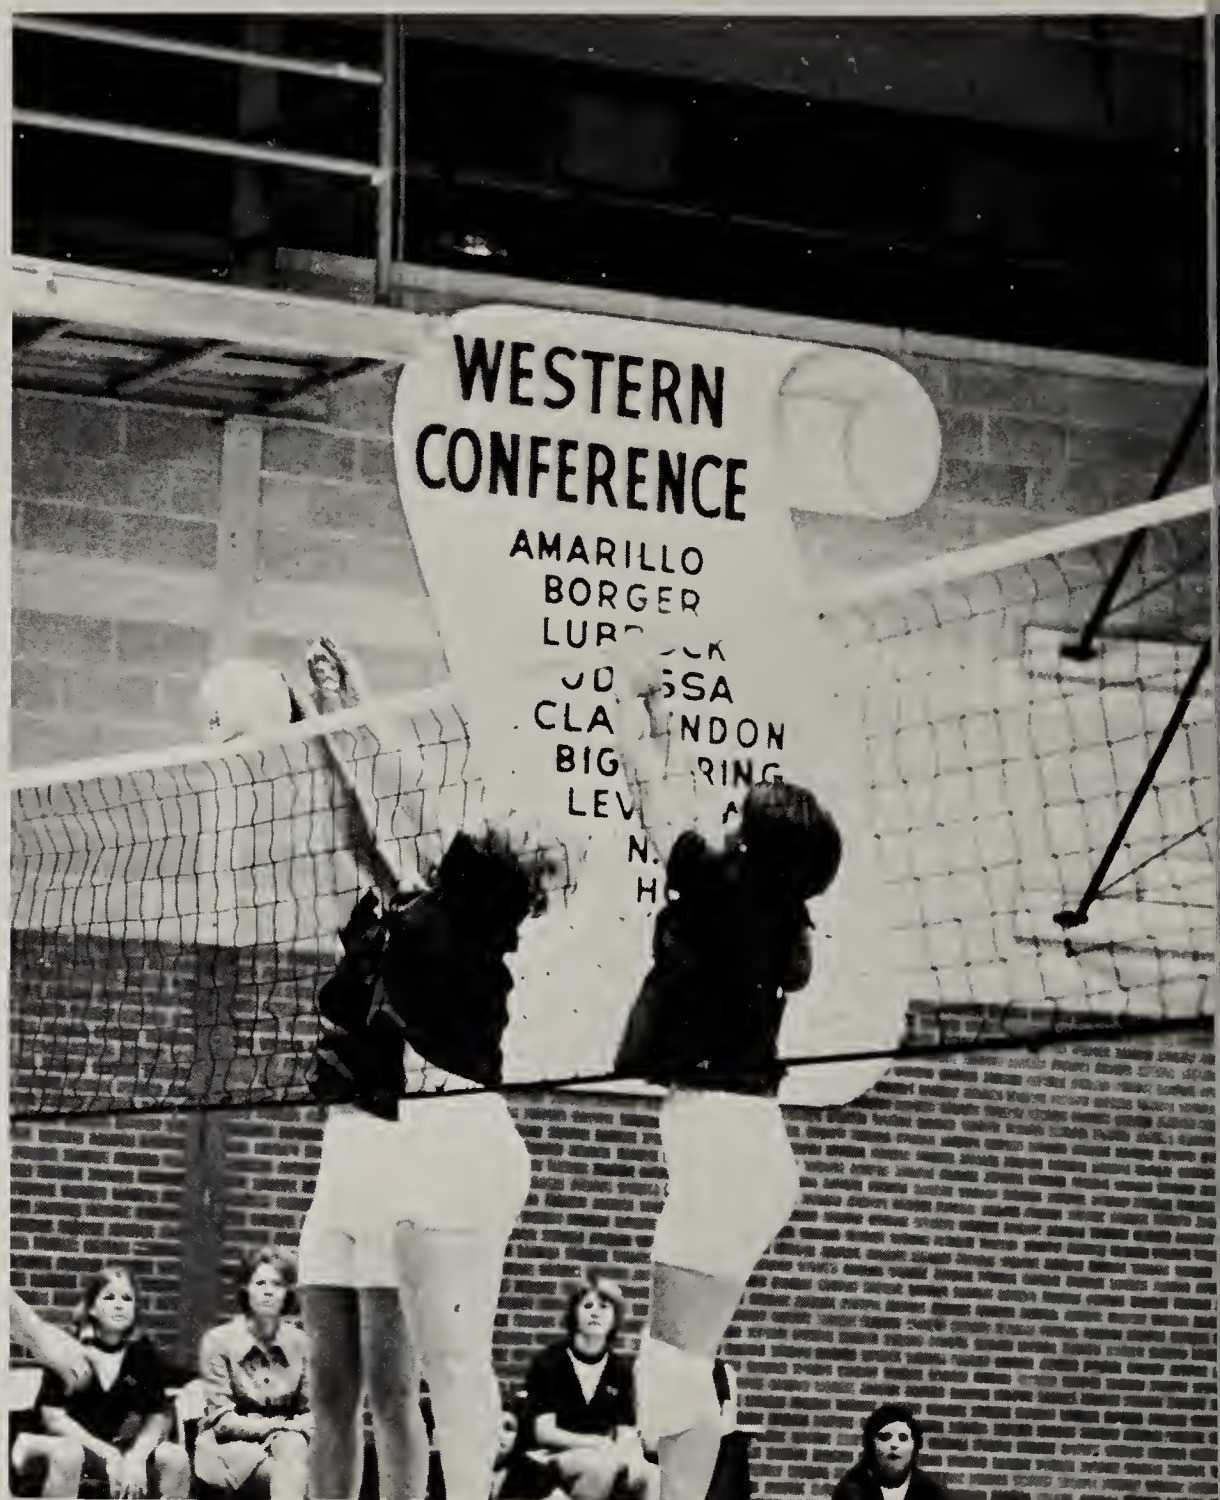

Among other schools in the district were Wayland Baptist, Angelo State, Abilene Christian College, and North Texas State.

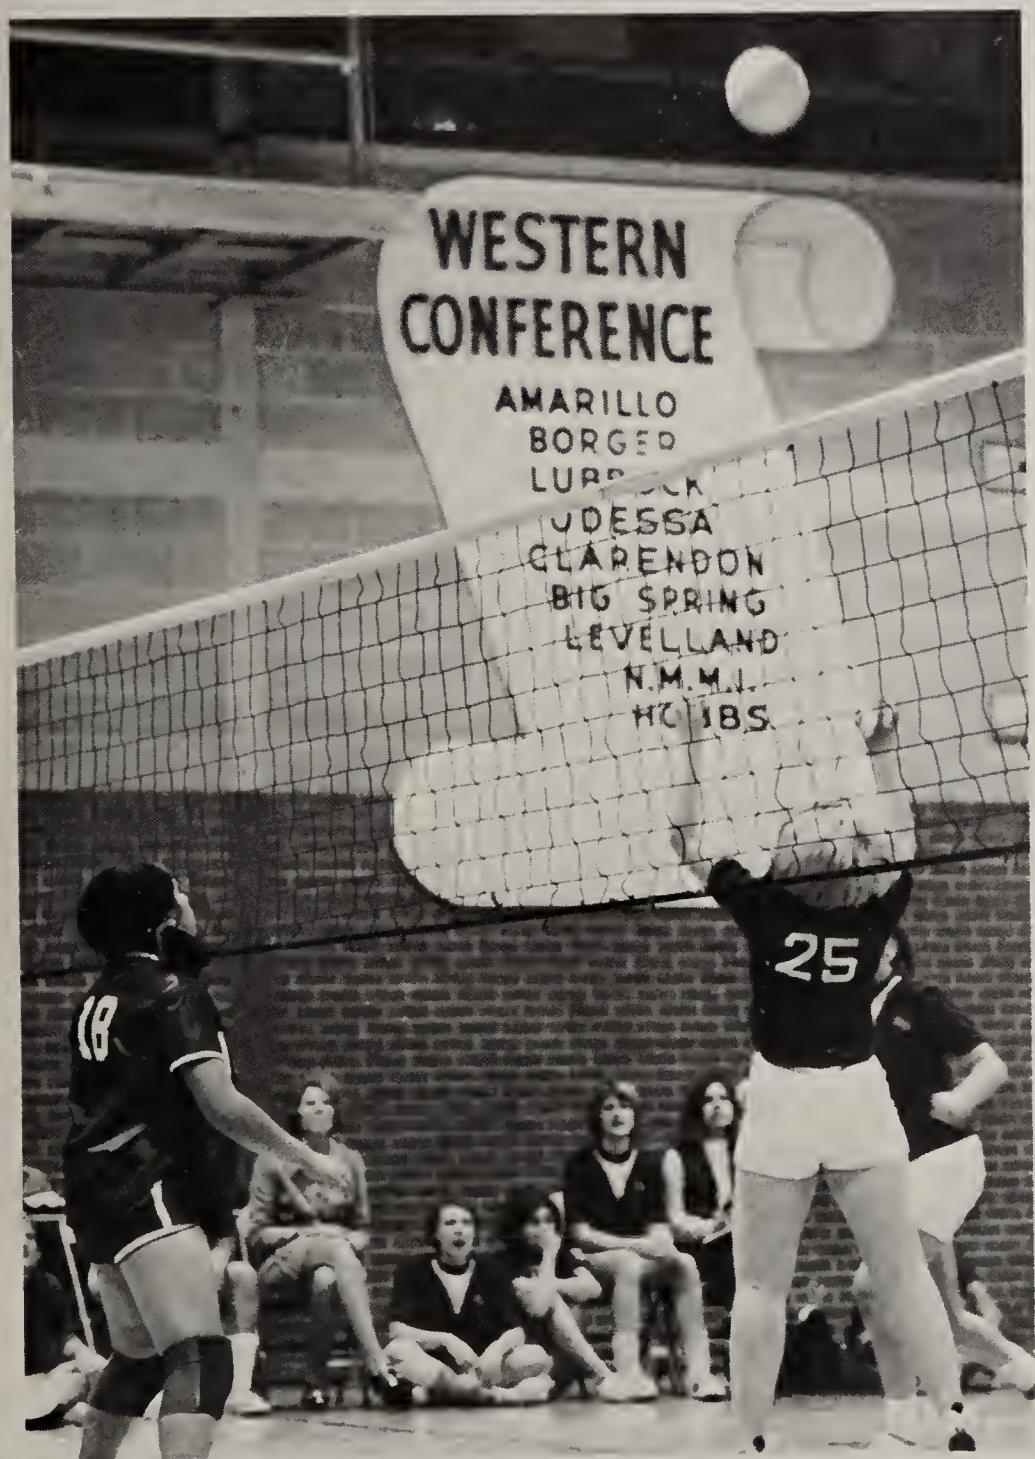

Returning from last year's team were Delma Esparza, Kathy Puckett, Susan Randolph and Susan Monk.

Vicki Whitley and Eloise Lascano were freshmen members of the six-woman squad.

Each week during the semester the team practiced 4 hours.

Rosie Woodson, OC physical education instructor, coached the girl's volleyball team.

Stuco Sponsors Powderpuff 'Ball

During the first half of the fall semester, powderpuff football made its appearance on the Odessa College campus.

Girls for the first time turned out as tackles, quarterbacks, and ends. There were enough girls interested in the masculine sport that a tournament was staged between six teams.

Las Senioritas No. 2 was named the victor after beating Pride '70 in the tournament's finals. The members of the first and second place teams were awarded trophies for their efforts.

The contests were sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association and the OC Student Council.

At the end of the season, the female population of OC elected Andy Lloyd as "Powderpuff King" from six candidates nominated by each of the six teams.

The teams comprising the Powderpuff League included the BSU, Campus Crusaders, Las Senioritas No. 2, Them, Pride '70, and WRA.

Gymnasts Practice For Competition

Gymnasts Strive For Perfection

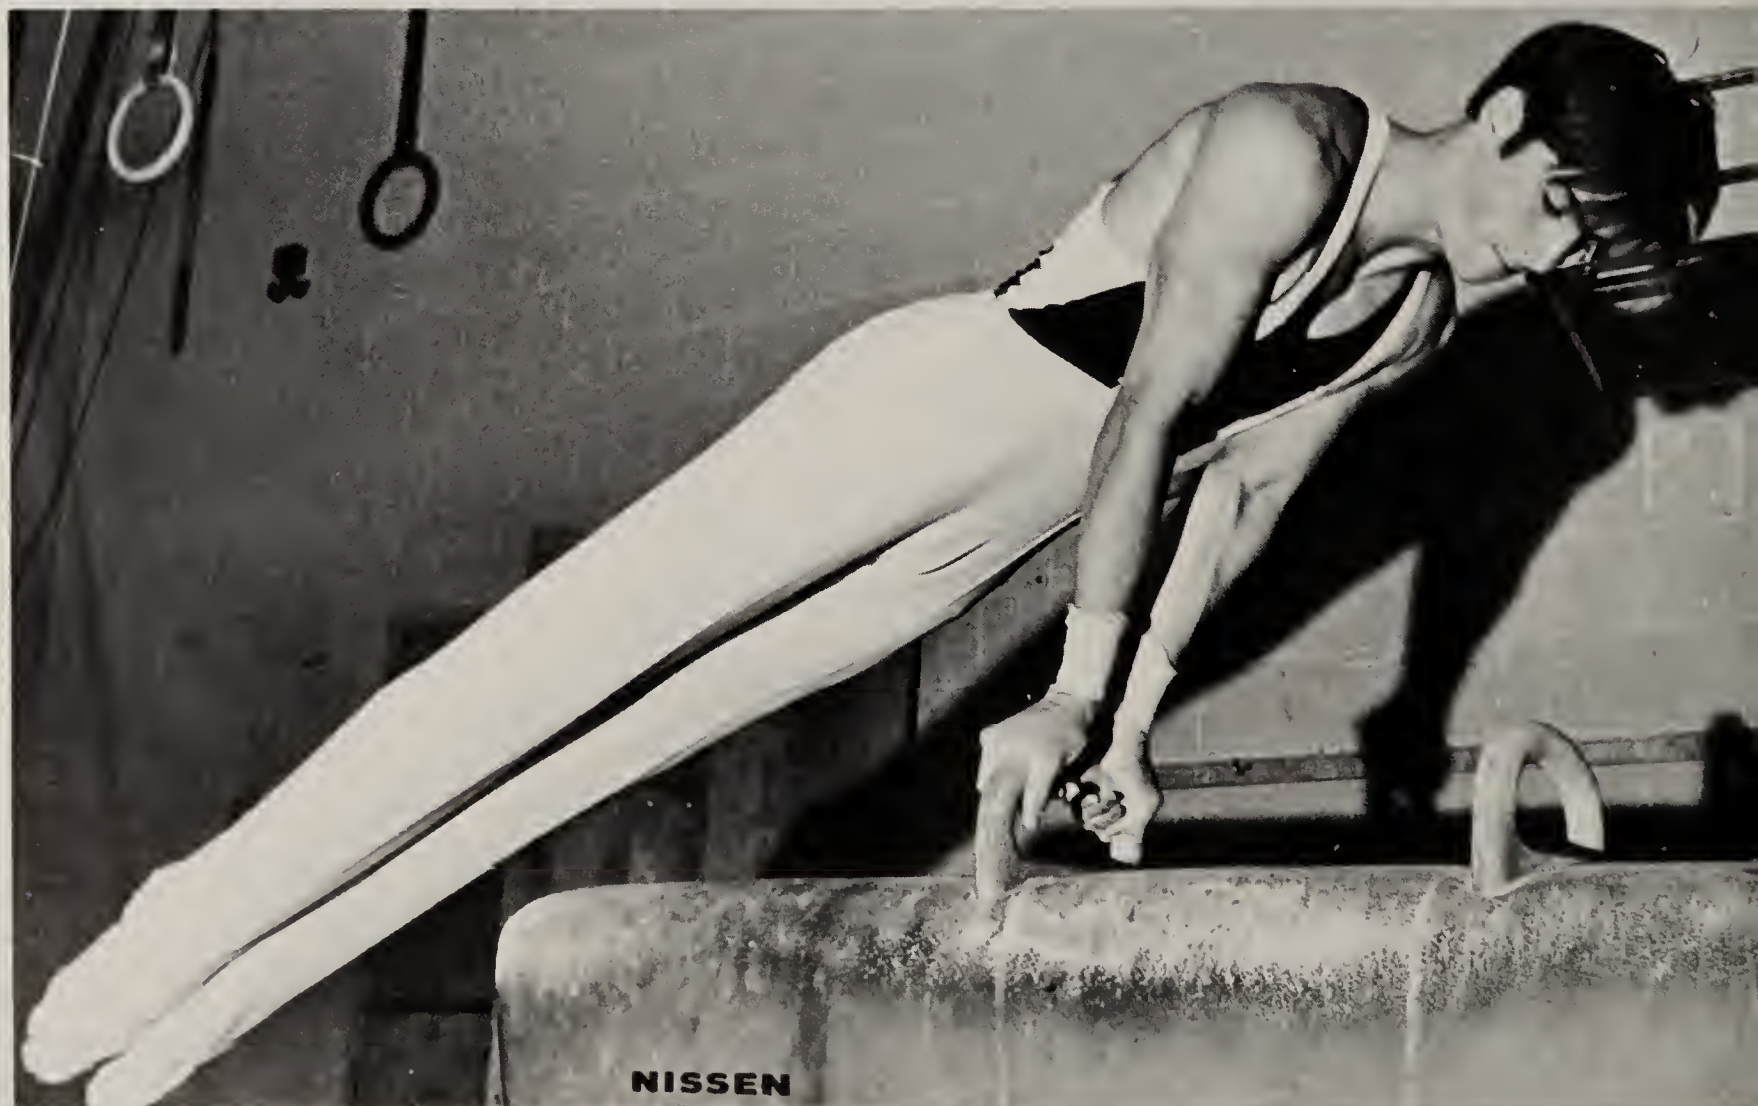

After walking away with the National Gymnastic Championship last year, Coach Michael Willson's gymnastics team entered competition this year with a title to defend.

According to Willson his eight returning gymnasts were a great asset to the team. They were Robert Atchison, Pat Daly, John Duran, Mike Henry, Roger Hudson, Rick Jones, Randy Snow, and Larry Thornton. Both Atchison and Hudson were Junior College All-Americans.

The 1970 team also consisted of 11 new recruits, all freshmen.

Odessa College gymnasts hosted an invitational meet in the Wrangler gym, Nov. 19-21.

The meet drew participants from Louisiana State University, the Air Force Academy, the University of Oklahoma and the University of New Mexico.

Wranglers Compete For Conference Title

Coach L. E. McColloch's Odessa College roundballers aimed for the Western Conference title and a birth in the National Junior College Tournament. The Wranglers faced tough competition against South Plains Junior College and Howard County Junior College.

The basketball team began conference play in late November and faced competition from conference rivals Schreiner, Clarendon, Amarillo, New Mexico Junior College, and New Mexico Military Institute.

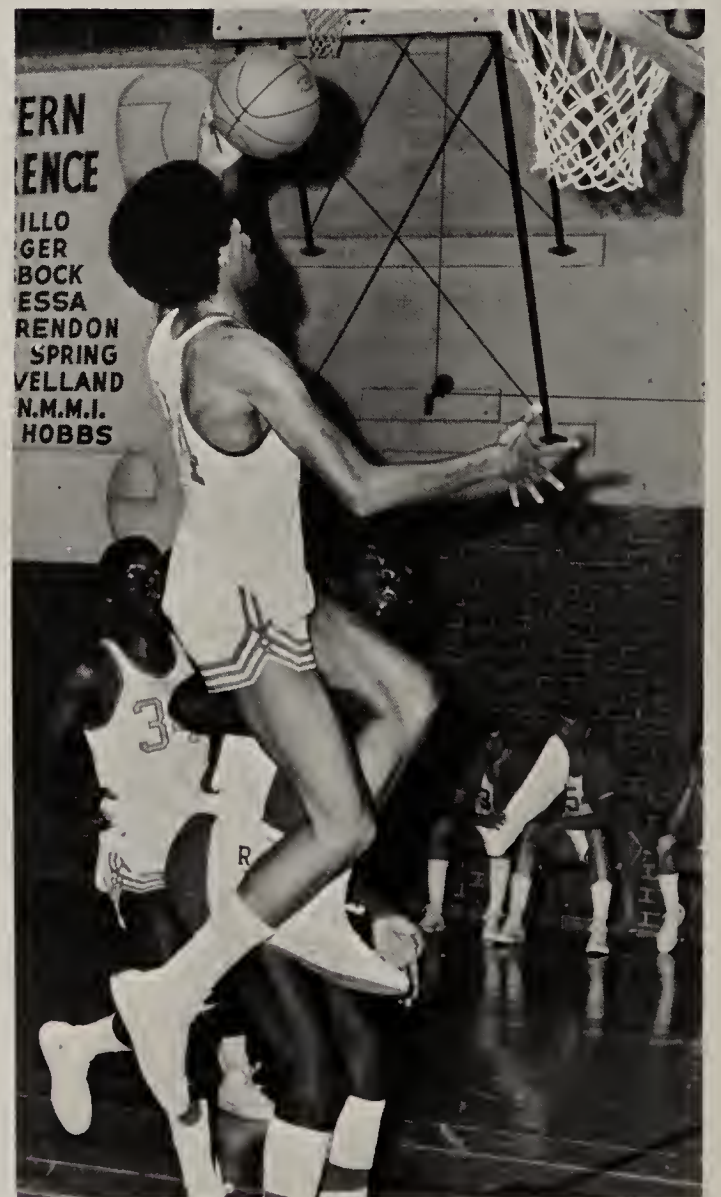

The 1970-71 team consisted of nine freshmen and four sophomores, two of whom returned from last year's team. Although the team was definitely a "freshman ball club," Ricky Moon from Odessa High and Quincy Wallace from Odessa Ector turned out to be the freshmen to watch.

Returning Linksmen Lead Wrangler Squad

Odessa College's linksmen aimed high and hoped to top their second place performance in the national competition last year.

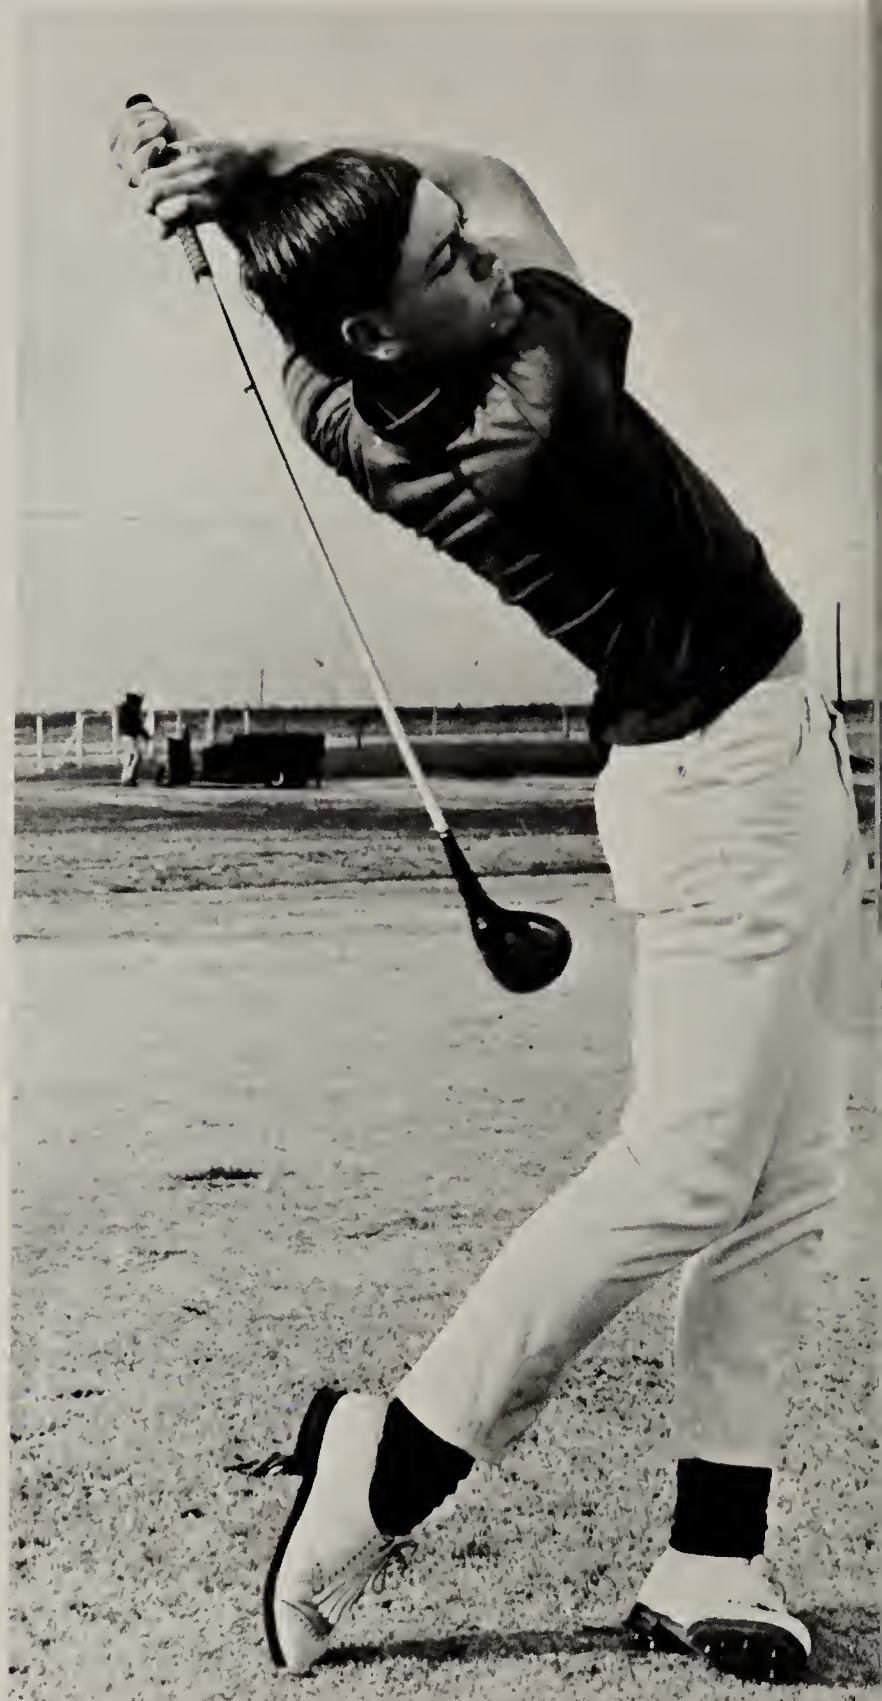

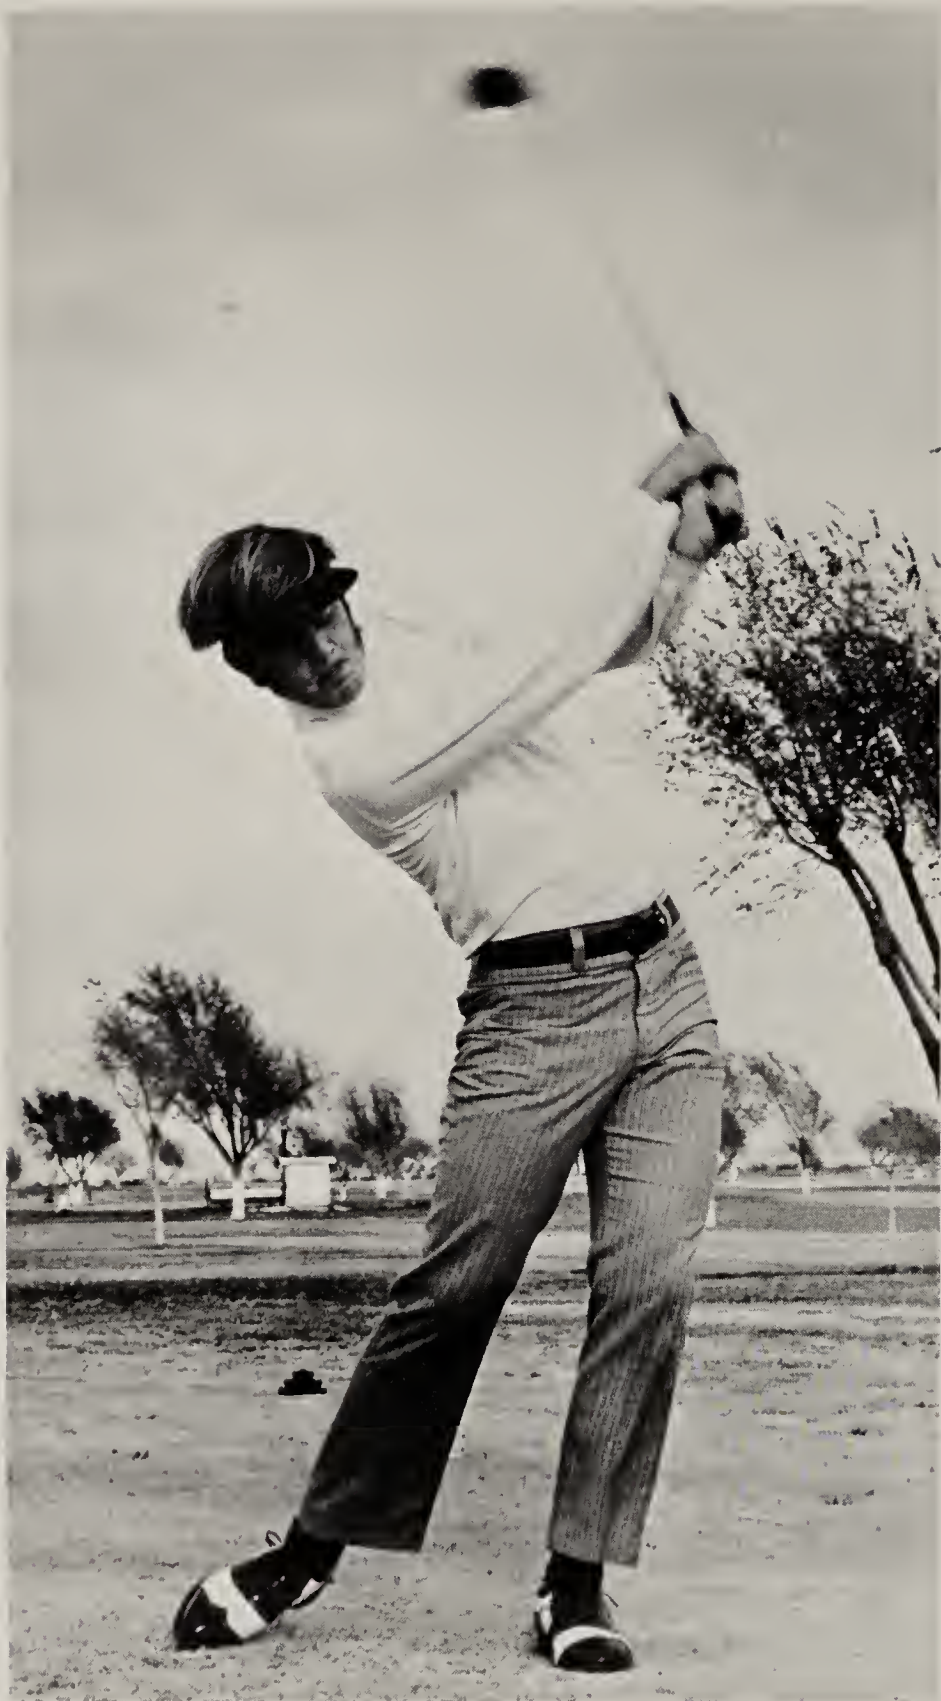

Scott Stegner, who earned a 12th place rating in the National Junior College Championships, served as captain of the men's golf team. Larry Malone from Twin Falls, Idaho, and Pat O'Donnell from Ontario, Canada, also competed on the men's squad.

OC's linksmen captured first place in the William H. Tucker Invitational Tournament, Oct. 15-17. The defending champion, U. S. International University of San Diego, California, finished 39 strokes behind the Wranglers.

For the second year, Barry Rodenhaver coached the OC golf teams.

Both the men's and women's teams practiced on the greens at the Odessa Country Club, the Golden Acres Country Club, and the Sunset Country Club between meets.

TRACK

OC Track Stars Work To Improve Record

Coach George Roach had high expectations for his five returning cindermen and his 14 freshmen tracksters.

Of the five track stars making their second appearance for Odessa College were three All-Americans: Reggie Allen, Willie Harrison and Oscar Wallace.

Wrangler cindermen started the season off well as they took nine of 17 events in the Levelland practice meet. The meet stretched the 440-yard relay teams winning string from all wins last year to a winning way this year. In the same meet Harrison unofficially tied a world's record in the 100-yard dash.

Wranglers also traveled to Houston for the Astrodome Federation National Indoor Championships.

Throughout every meet OC track stars worked to improve last year's standing of second place in the National Junior Track Meet in Garden City, Kansas. The team took the second place honors with the performance of five sprinters. All five made All-American, and three of the five, Allen, Harrison, and Wallace, returned to OC this year.

TENNIS

Six Lettermen Return To Dominate Season

Virginia Brown, in her eighth year as coach of the Odessa College tennis team, welcomed six returning lettermen and five new recruits for the 1970 season.

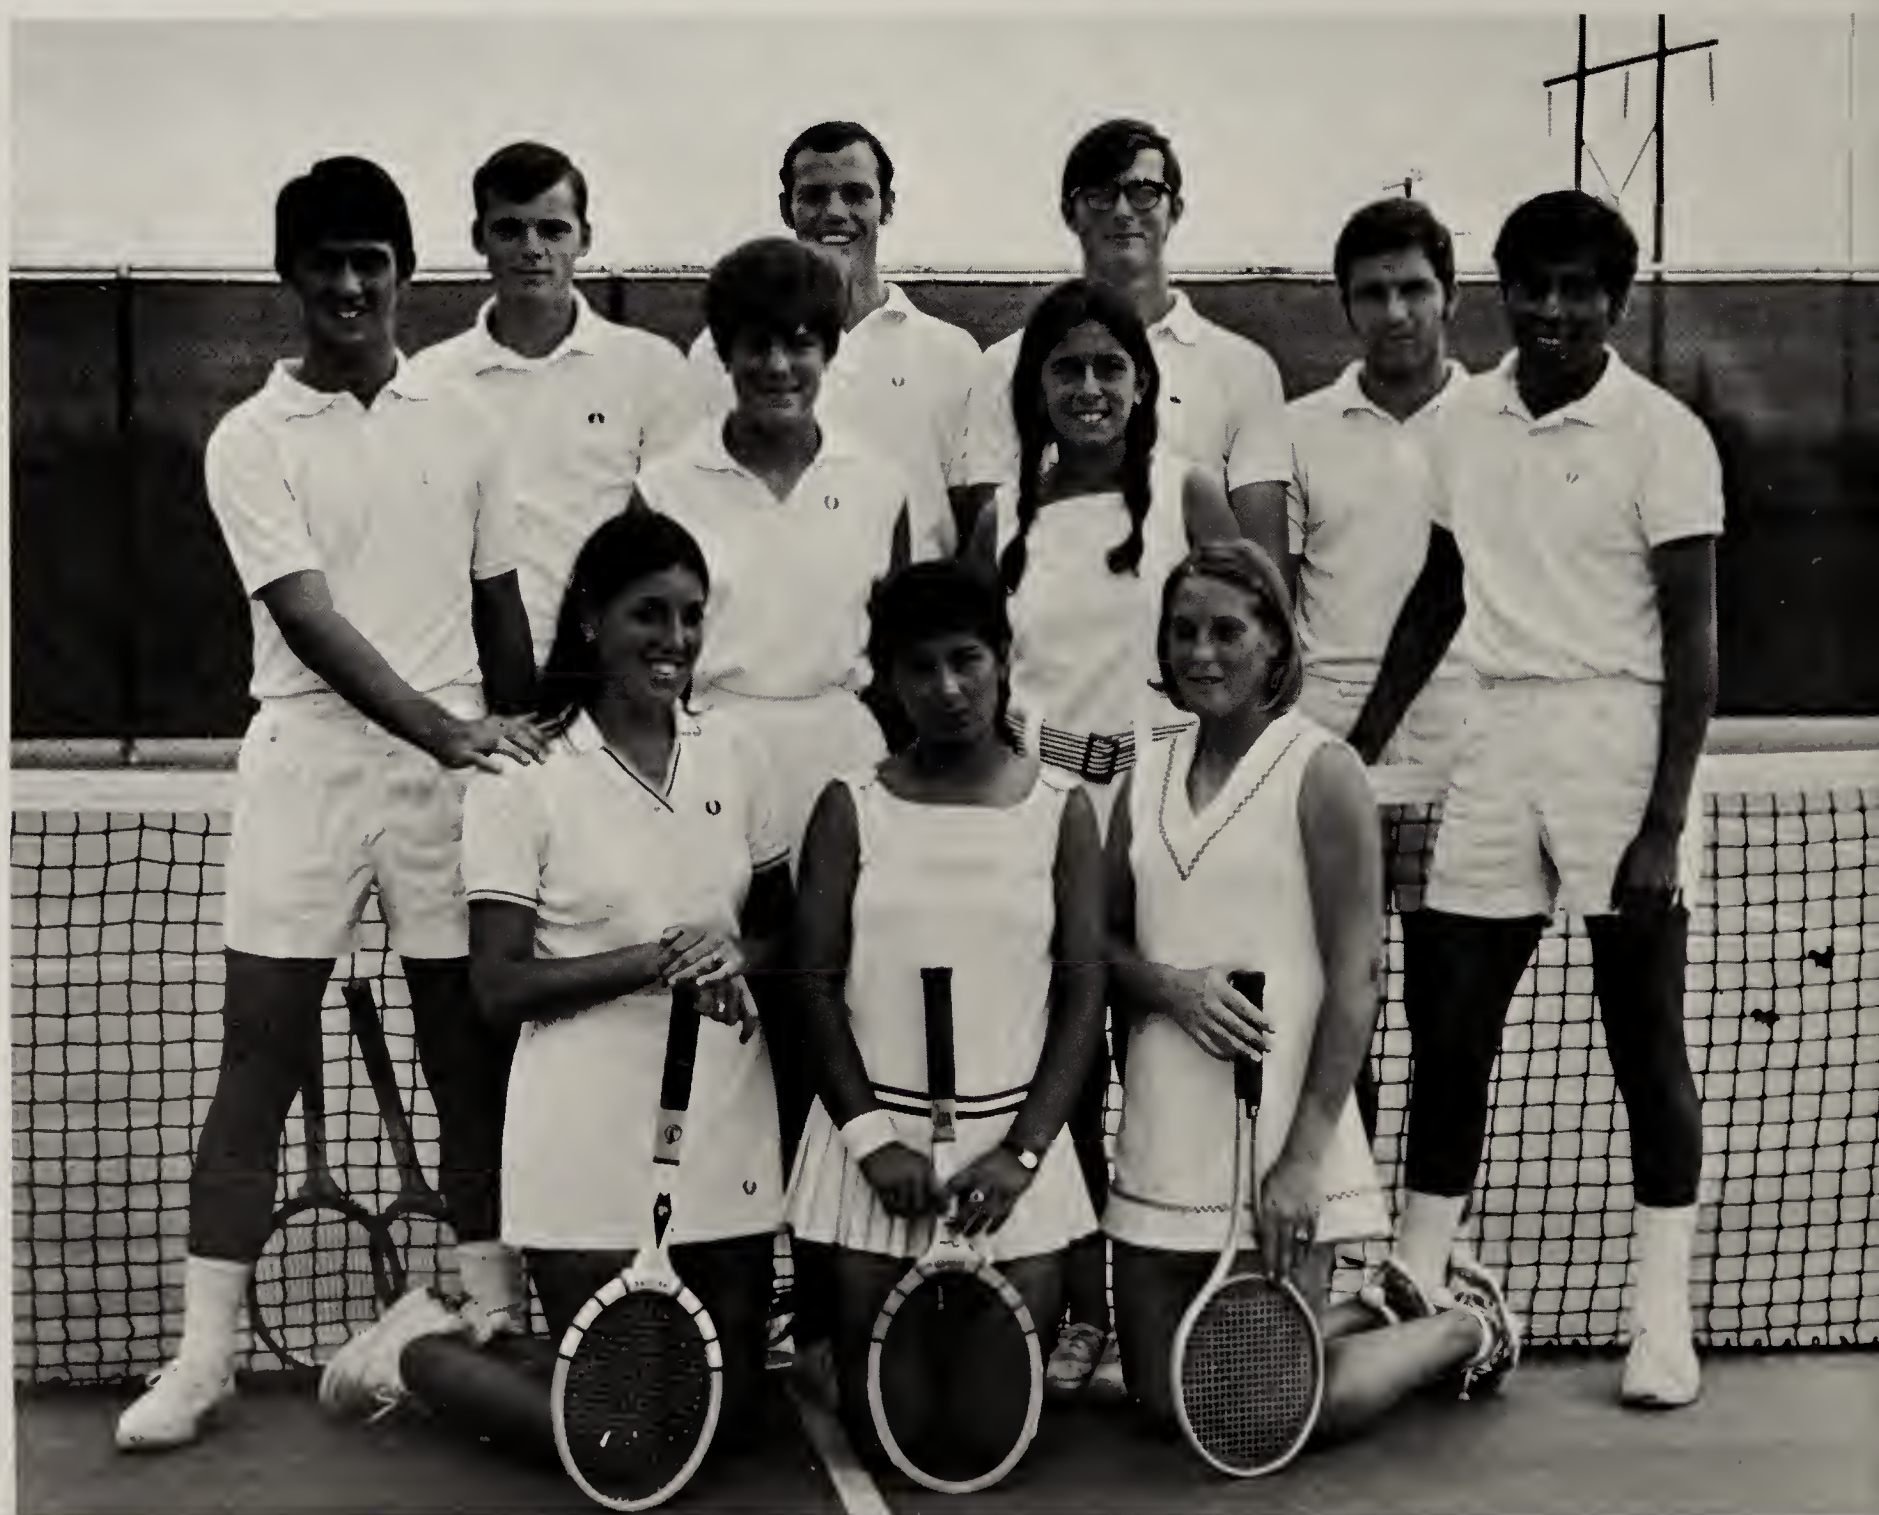

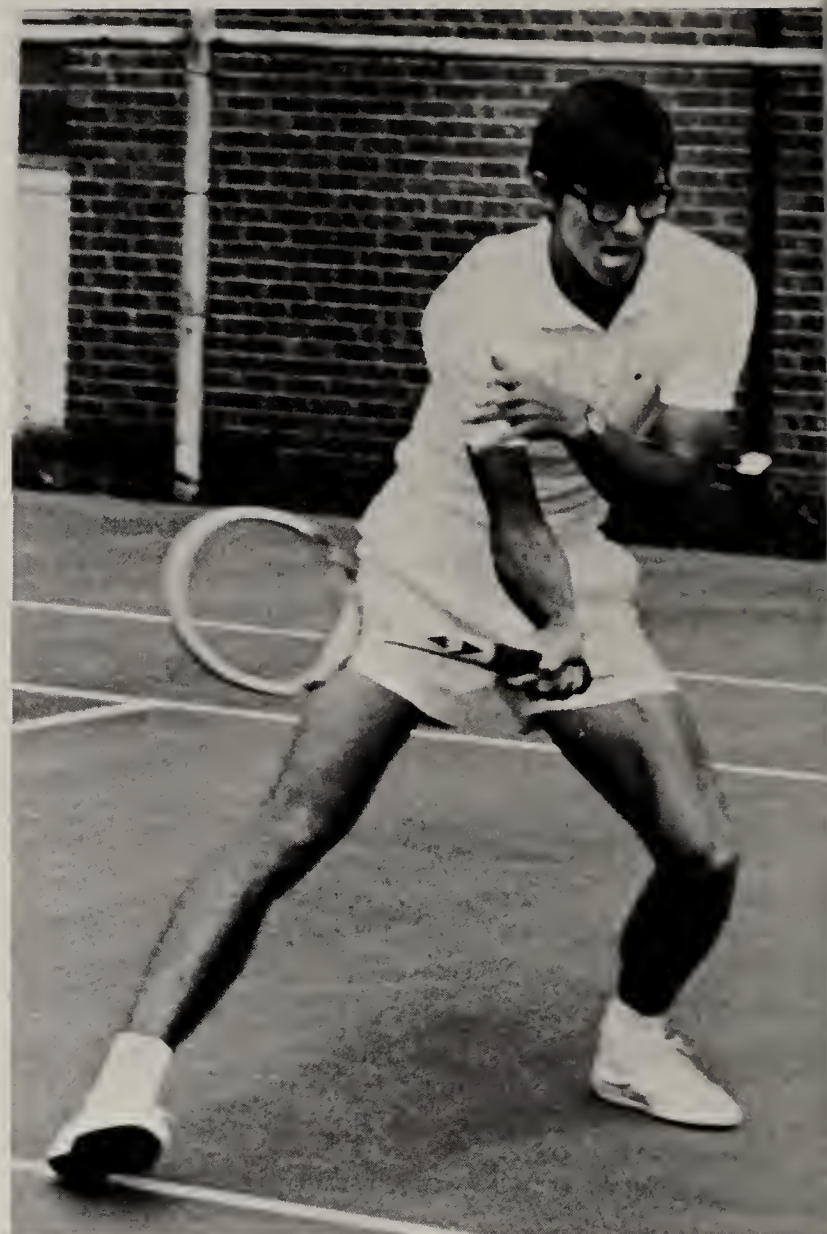

The returning women netters included Connie Capozzi, who won the Women's National Junior College Doubles Championship last year with ex-OC netter, Pam Farmer; and Janis Mauldin and Janet Persell, who teamed up to win the Odessa Country Club Invitational doubles crown.

Returning members of the men's team were P. A. Lyons from Spearman, Willie Paz, former Bolivian National Champion, and Steve Osborn, an OC netter from Odessa.

OC's women's team captured both first and second place honors in singles and doubles events in the Midland Invitational Tennis Tournament.

The Wrangler tennis team also competed in the Amarillo Indoor Invitational Tennis Tournament Nov. 27-29.

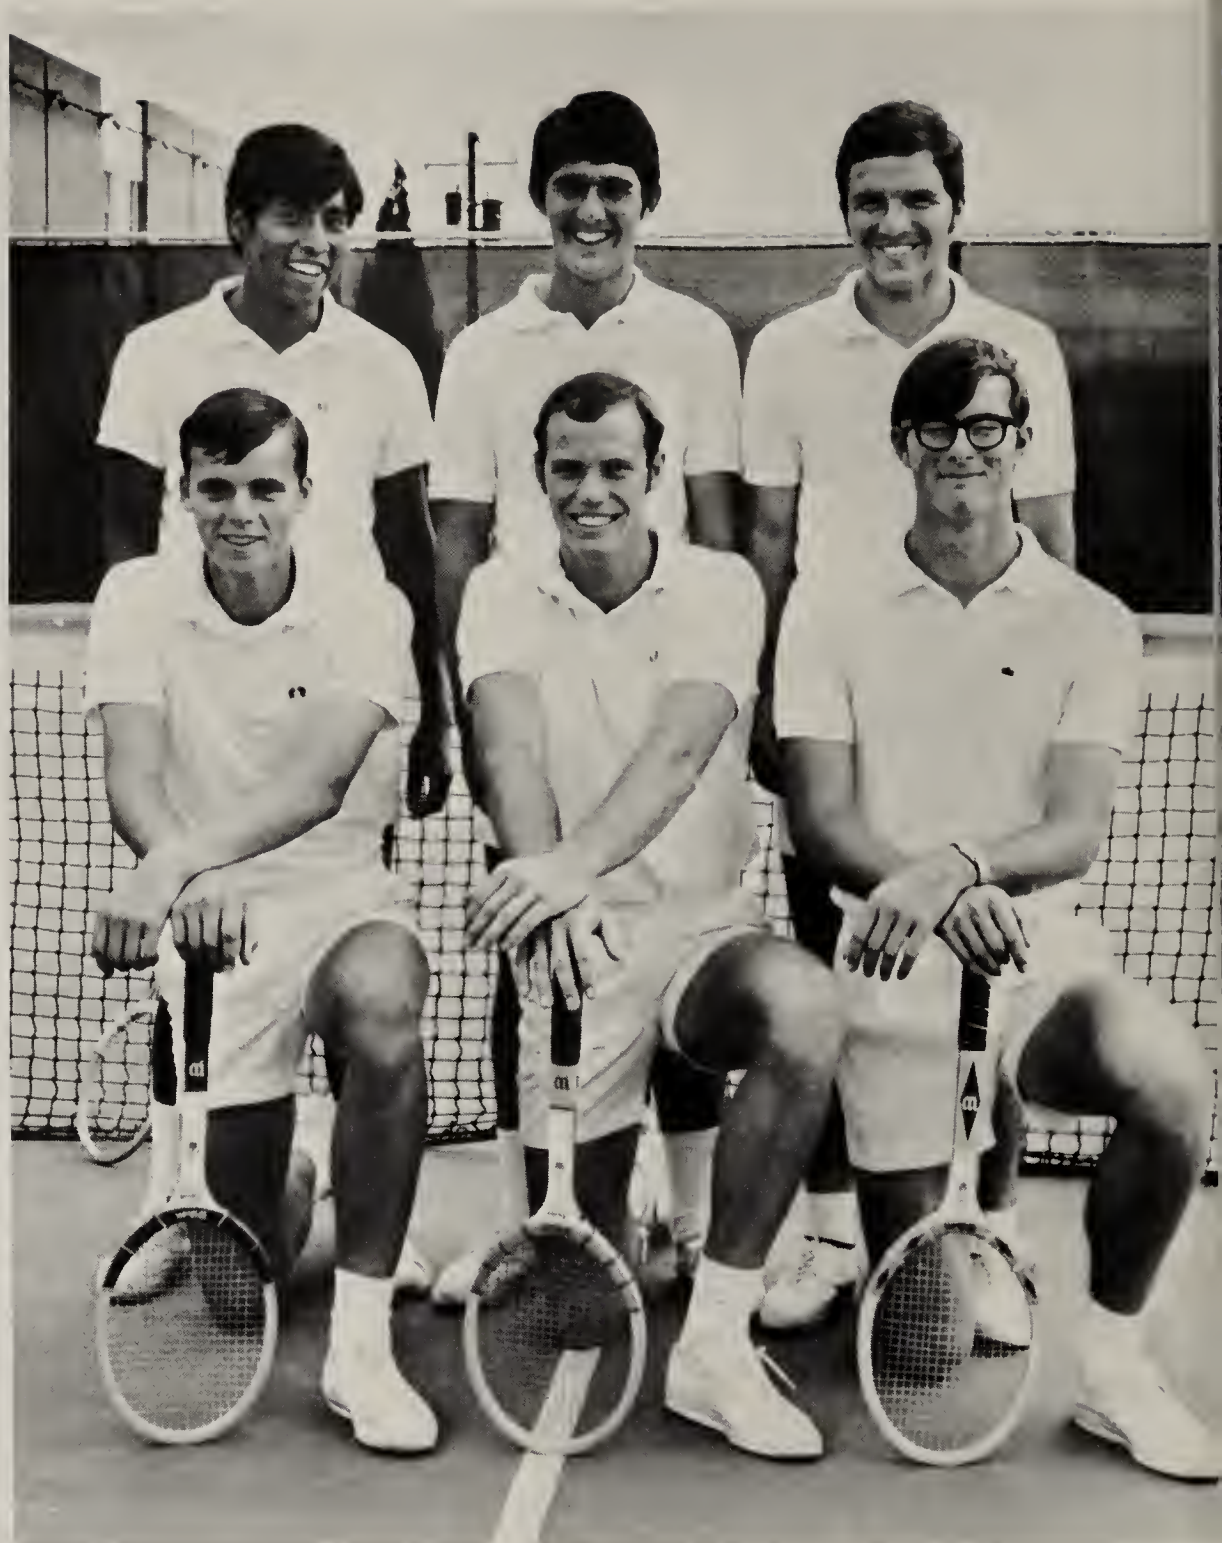

Wranglers entered the Fort Worth Invitational Tournament, and the women's team turned it into an Odessa College affair by capturing both the singles and doubles crowns. Connie defeated her teammate Janis for the singles title while Miss Brown and Janis took the doubles championship with a win over the team of Janet and Connie.

Yearbook Staff Meets Deadline

The yearbook staff attempted to make this year's edition equal to the prizewinning books of prior years, using the theme of "Faces". With Judi Halbert serving as editor, the staff put in many hours before meeting the final hectic deadline.

Working closely with Judi was Jerry Miles, head photographer and his staff consisting of Leonard Ballard, Darwin MacBeth, Charles Hollis, and Larry Webb.

Valorie McKee was organizations editor, aided by Andrew Tevington. Dwight Snailum was sports editor and Lynn Cobb was his assistant. Campus life was edited by Dana Grimes. Debbie Hummel and Jamie Coleman also worked on the campus life section. Faculty editor was Teresa Merit, while Susan Coney and Tony Gonzalez were classes editors. Ann Christian was editor of the personalities section.

The yearbook's artwork was done by Jim Carlin and Jamie Coleman.

Paper Informs Student Body

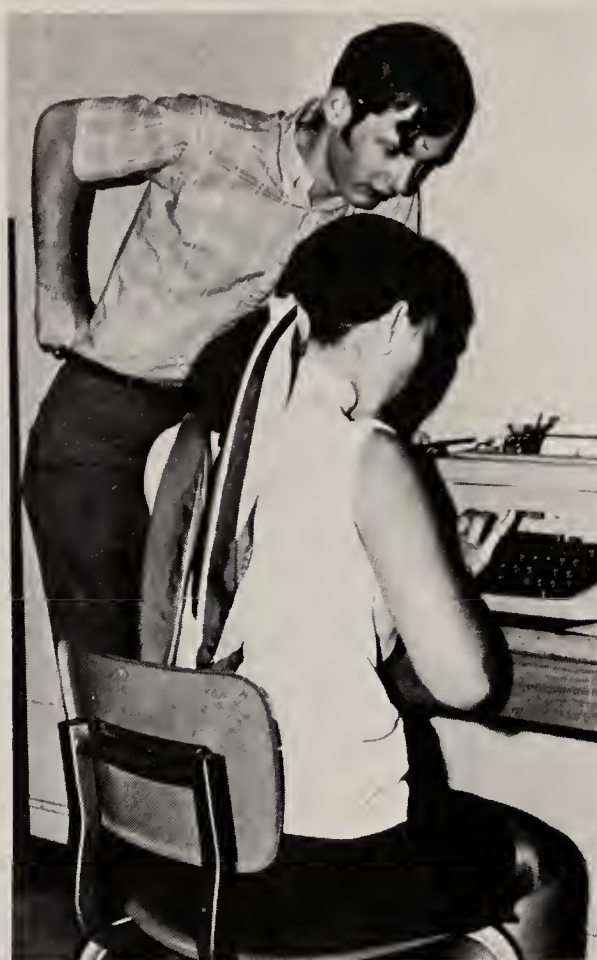

"The Roundup," Odessa College's bimonthly newspaper kept the student body informed of current events concerning Odessa College. Members of the staff worked busily throughout the year to meet deadlines set up by editor Susan Coney.

Susan was aided by Gayle Noll, the newspaper's Advisor; sports editor Karen Clark; and features editor Celeste Moore.

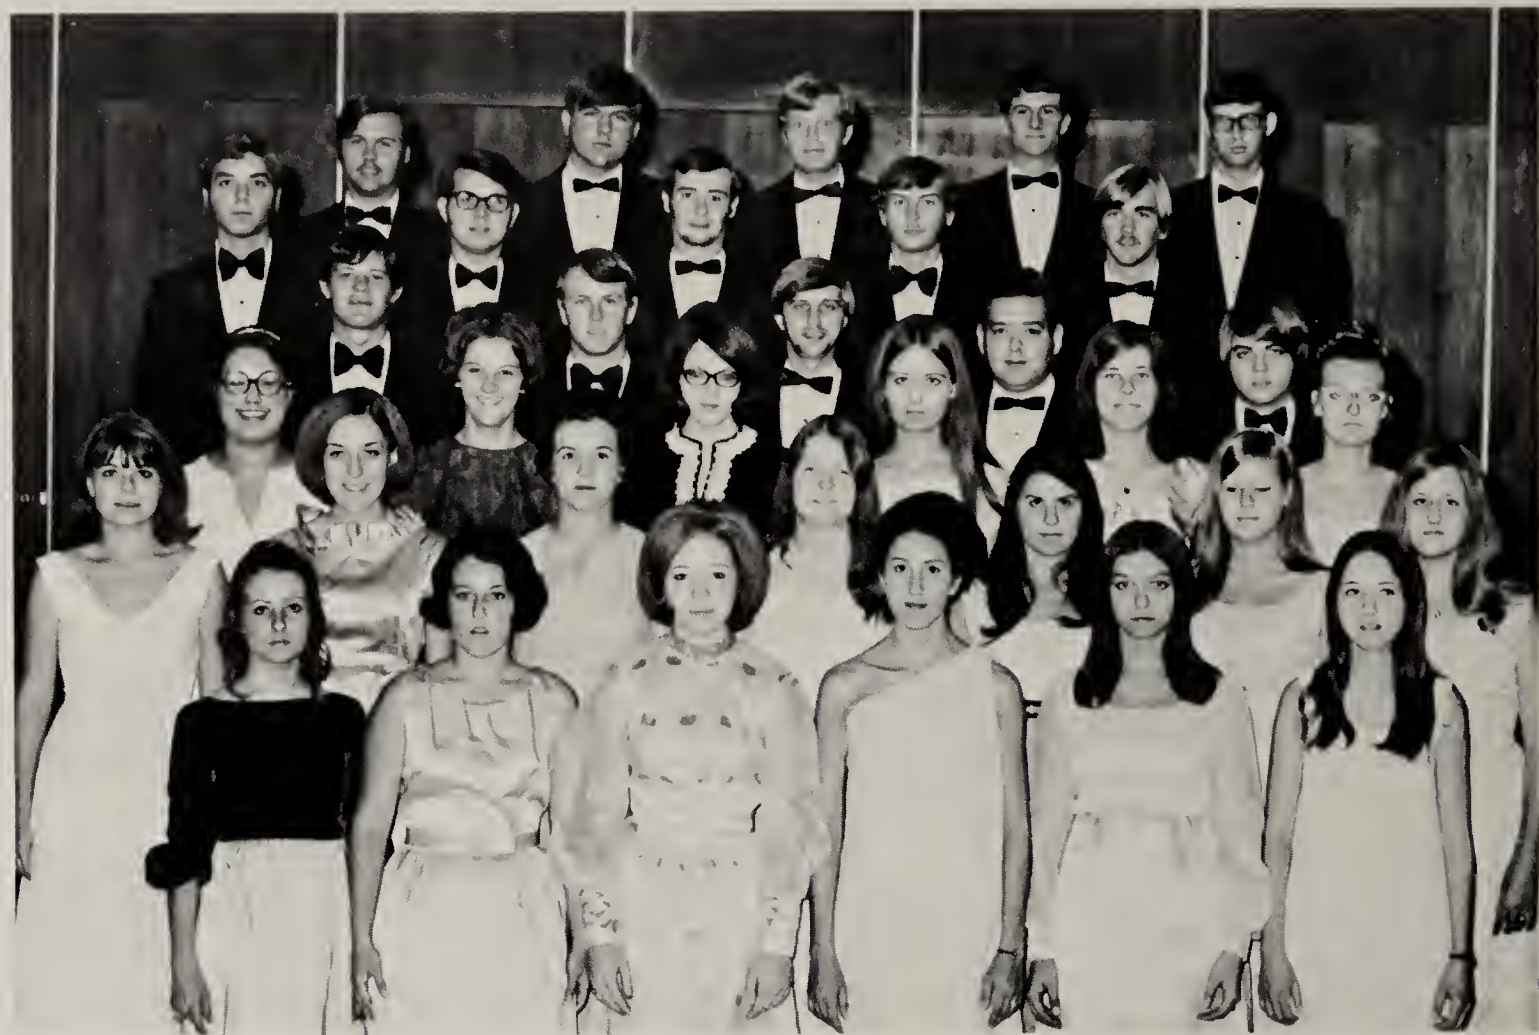

"The Roundup" reporters this year were Shelia Allee, Lynda Branson, Judi Halbert, Virginia Lee, Mike Loftis, Bettye Pardue, Clifford Pumphrey, Liz Riley, Dwight Snailum, and Cynthia Speed.

Tracy Atkinson was business manager.

Chorale Hosts College Choirs

The Odessa College Choral Department hosted the West Texas State University Chorale and the Baylor University A Cappella Choir during the first semester this year. The two choirs sang for OC students in the Fine Arts Building Recital Hall.

The OC Choir also performed in the Recital Hall, but Maurice Alfred's students filled the main auditorium with their voices during the annual Odessa College Musical as the crowds grew too large to be held in the Fine Arts Building.

Featured soloists for this year's performances included Mike Warner and Connie Pittman.

OC Band Plays Modern Sounds

One of the few full-year junior college bands in the nation, the Odessa College band, under the direction of Peter Figert, presented Fall and Spring Concerts to the OC student body. While the concerts had no specific themes, the music played was mostly contemporary.

The OC musicians also played at the cheerleader tryouts, basketball games and homecoming.

Assisting Mr. Figert this year were Ann Doss, the band president, vice-president John Hoover, social chairman Susan Smith, secretary Paulette Briley, treasurer Janna Auslam and the equipment managers Mike Anderson and John Burhalter.

Stuco Promotes School's Goals

Student Council promoted student experience in leadership, an understanding between students and the faculty, and scholarship throughout the year at OC. In order to attain these school goals, Student Council sponsored freshman beanie sales, student elections, a watermelon party, various dances, and homecoming activities.

Elected to the presidential post was Tommy Burnett with Lynn Miles assisting him as vice-president. Keeping the minutes was the job of Sharon Ricks, secretary.

From the sophomore and freshman classes came representatives Olivia Cochran, Lorna Thomas, Rocky Winford, Lynda Branson, Vicki Loughland, and Susan McDaniel.

Students Learn Teaching Fields

Encouraging prospective teachers to learn more about the education field was the task of the Texas Student Education Association. Members of the Texas State Teachers Association affiliate viewed informative films and slides and listened to local educators speak on the various fields of education.

In October TSEA members left rainy Odessa for a state convention in El Paso. The club also sponsored a faculty tea during national education week.

Officers for this year's club were Dana Spruill, president; Carol Scott, vice-president; secretary Ebb Hinchliffe, and reporter Judy Sykes. Marilue Adair and Georgann Griswold sponsored the club.

OC Students Aid The Handicapped

Other officers this year were the first and second vice-presidents Juanell Johnson and Versue Bugiks; Janet Stohl, treasurer; Carol Scott, secretary; and Wanda Woods, ICC Representative.

Harriet McClendon advised the Home Economics club as sponsor.

On the leading end of the meetings were Jerry Miles president; Judi Halbert, vice-president; secretary Susan Coney and ICC representative Lynda Branson. On the advisory end was Gayle Noll, the club's sponsor.

Members Become Better Engineers

Meeting every other Tuesday in the Electronics Technology Building, the Odessa College Engineering Club strived to "make better engineers" of its members by giving them the opportunity to hear established engineers relate the pros and cons of the engineering field.

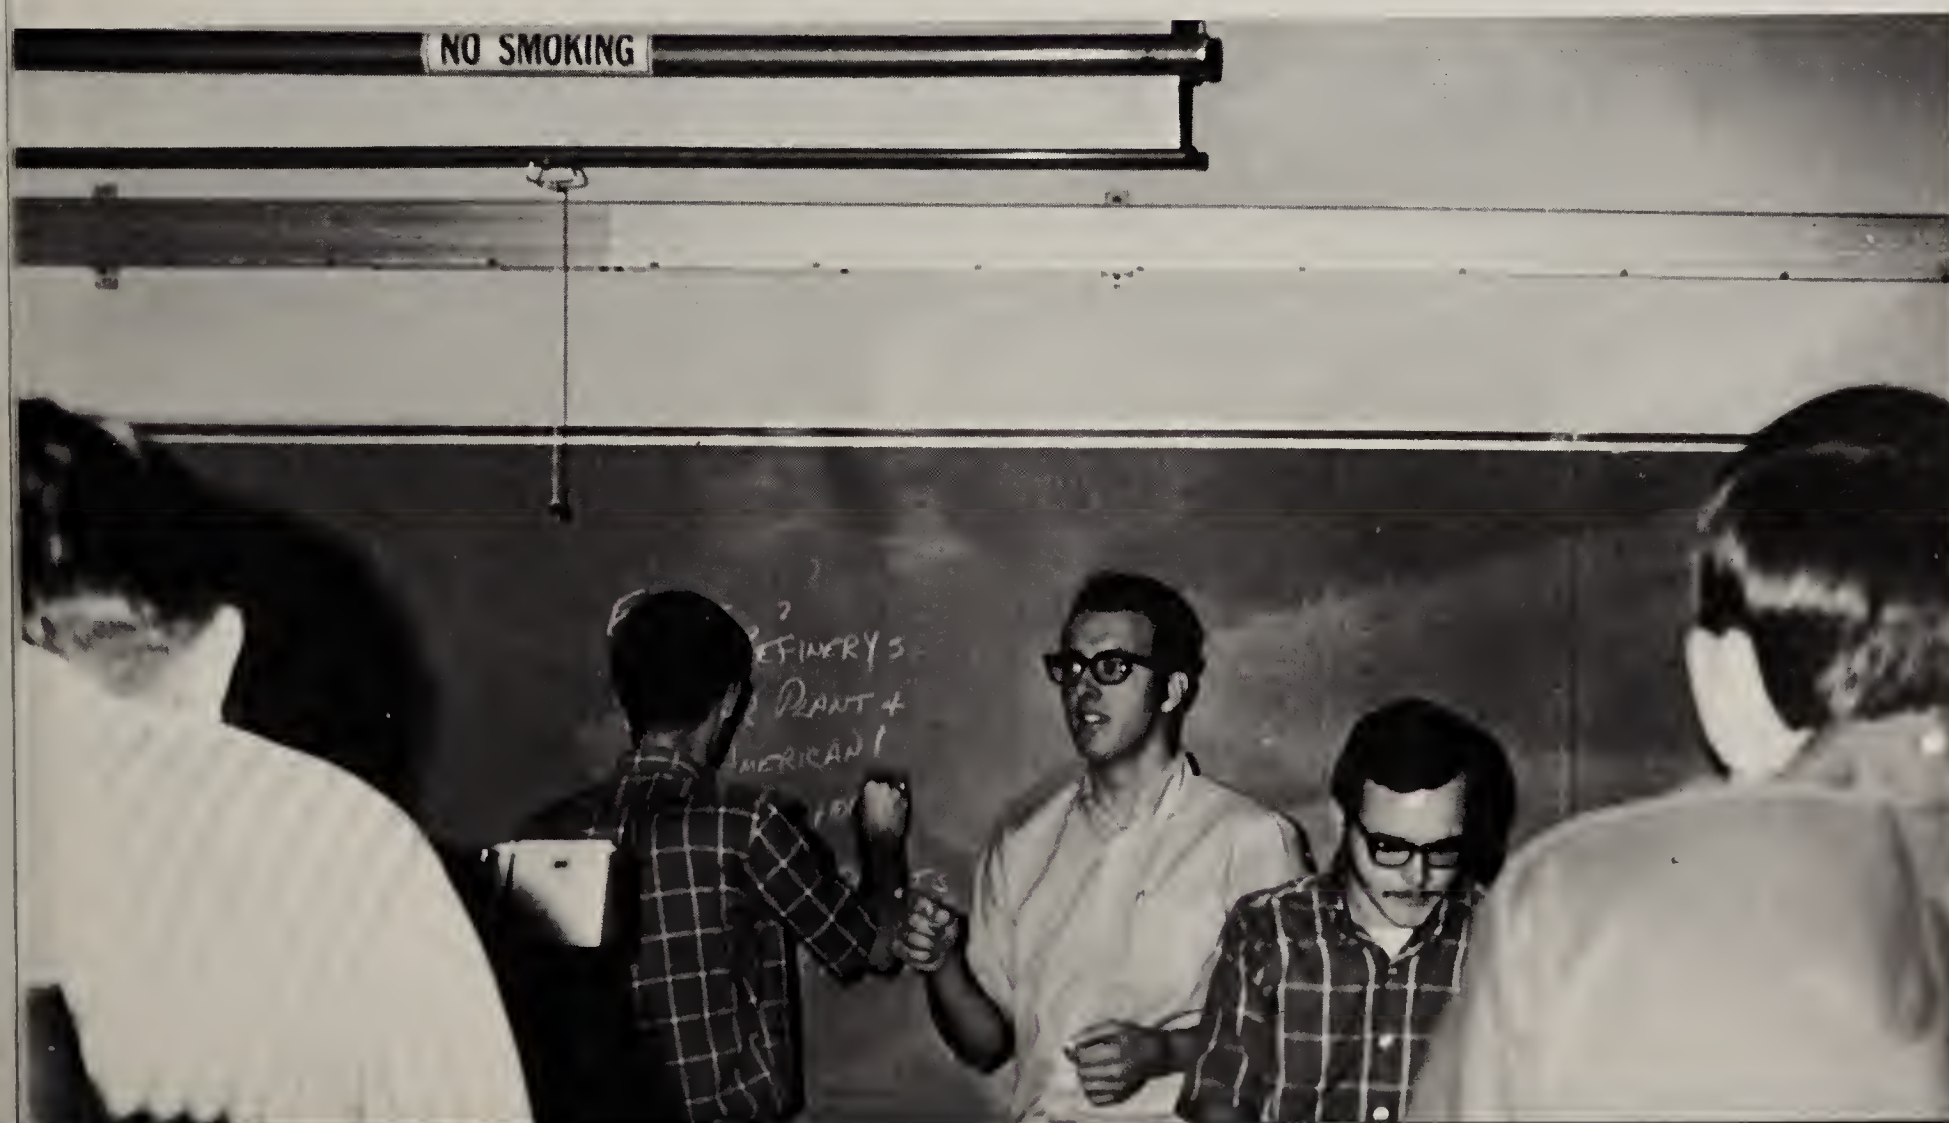

Members also got to the heart of things when they visited such places as the El Paso Products Plant in Odessa.

The club members elected Ray Fuller to the presidency, Dennis Ballew to the position of vice-president, and Gary Scott to the secretarial job. This year's sponsor was Hugh Waldrum.

Pollution Test On Club Agenda

Excursions to the caprock regions of the state and air pollution tests were among the activities of the Odessa Science Club during the year.

Before going into the field, the Science Club members saw informative films in Wikerson Hall. Rounding out the agenda were speeches on the different scientific fields.

President Mike Lyman planned the program with help from Vice-president Jim Vestring. Julia Wright was secretary, and Patrik Daly was the club's ICC representative. Sponsors this year were Mildred Bevan, John Dismant, Lavon Ellis, Ernest Szabo, and Roger Corzine.

OC Students Tutor

Offering a tutoring service to students and children of the Rehabilitation Center in Odessa, the Eta Tau chapter of the honorary scholastic organization, Phi Theta Kappa, promoted scholarship on the Odessa College campus.

Another Eta Tau projects was the preparation of a student directory. Members compiled names, addresses, and phone numbers of all OC students for the directory.

The directory was compiled by students who had qualified for membership by attaining a 3.2 grade average and carrying 15 semester hours. To retain membership, an Eta Tau member had to hold a 3 point average and at least 15 semester hours.

Presiding at meetings was Maurice Gaddis, president. Steve Osborn served as vice-president, Joyce Wein as secretary, Debbie Gray as treasurer, Susan Coney as publicity chairman, and Patsy Monroe was the club's scrapbook chairman.

ICC Compiles Club Calendar

All clubs lead to the Inter-Club Council. Each club activity was listed on a weekly calendar of events after being approved by the ICC. The calendar was used to coordinate all the functions of the various clubs on campus.

Heading the compiling duties of the club was Ebb Hinchliffe, with help from Jane Morris, vice-president and sponsors Dulan Clegg, Ned Pilcher Jr., and Robert Porter.

KOCV-FM Run By OCBA

The voice of Odessa College, KOCV-FM was aired every weekday this year through the efforts of the Odessa College Broadcasting Association led by student station manager Sam Howell.

Along with broadcasting local, national, and international news from studios in Deadrick Hall, OCBA members covered basketball games and provided announcements of social activities at OC.

Also included in the 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. broadcast day was an extensive music program. The notes coming over the air varied smoothly from rock to classic, all programmed by OCBA members.

Wallace Jackson advised the members.

BSU Aids Children

Under the leadership of Andy Loyd, Baptist Student Union president, the BSU sponsored an adopt-a-child-for-a-day program in December, this year.

Other programs sponsored by the club were weekly "Speaking Out" sessions and a "Noonspiration" also held every week.

The Baptist Student Center, BSU's meeting hall, provided room for area churches to give students a hot meal for 25 cents each Friday of both terms.

Sportsmanship Spread by WRA

The Women's Recreation Association spread good sportsmanship on campus as the year unfolded, using such tactics as badminton, volleyball, tennis, and softball. These games were part of the intramural activities the WRA promoted in the drive for good sportsmanship and fun. WRA also sponsored the Permain Basin and Queen Bee Volleyball Tournaments.

Sponsor Rosie Woodson advised the WRA president, Kathy Puckett as Kathy presided over the club's meetings and coordinated the various activities.

New Policy Set by Ham Radio Club

The Odessa College Amateur Radio Club expanded its boundaries this year. In the club's first year, last year, it offered ham radio training only to its members. This year the club taught any student interested the secrets of the ham sets.

Members of the club worked toward a fourth class radio operator's license. Those students who already had their "ham ticket" used the club's equipment to talk to other hams as far away as New Zealand and Austria.

Group Studies Shakespeare

Students interested in the works of William Shakespeare met twice a month at the Globe of the Great Southwest. The Shakespeare Club members occasionally presented the skits and sonnets of the playwright-poet to anyone interested at the meetings.

Other meetings hosted experts who spoke on the different phases of Shakespearean literature, while, meetings near October 12 were concerned with the World Poetry Day Contests the club sponsored.

Serving as this year's presiding officers were Eddie Prado, president and Marlene Shelton, vice-president. Other officers were secretary Libby Van Hoff and ICC representatives Lynn Mathews and Jammy Coleman. Sponsors this year were Mary Jane Gentry and Majorie Morris.

Club Prepares Business

Phi Beta Lambda enabled Odessa College students to become more familiar with business, professional and community life.

Membership in the business club consisted of students enrolled in any of the business courses available at OC. Using knowledge from their classes and club meetings, Phi Beta Lambda members raised funds for the club through bake sales and car washes.

Pointers for operating in the business world were given by local businessmen and women and the sponsors, Rita Hurst, Paul Nieball, Delores Brehens, and Luther Corder.

Officers for the year were Susan Elder, president; Ray Dominquez, vice-president; Jackie Hanson, secretary; and ICC representatives Carol Cook and Linda Graham.

Students Learn Debate

Phi Rho Pi, the national forensics club to which the Odessa College speakers belonged, promoted speech activities for its members at the junior college level. The speech competition it provided presented personal challenges in the fields of debate, poetry reading, prose reading, and persuasive speaking. Speaking experience was given the Speech Club members as each was given a chance to step on public podiums through the encouragement of the Phi Rho Pi.

Sponsoring this year's club was Ramona Peebles.

The Odessa College chapter of the American Chemical Society provided information on the fields of chemistry, medicine, space aeronautics, and synthetics in an effort to promote interest in the field of basic chemistry.

While any student interested could attend meetings, only those students majoring in chemistry or chemical engineering were able to become members.

The activities of the year, including an October road rally, were under the leadership of President Lonnie Lawrence, Vice-President Steve Beckner and Dale Taggart, secretary.

Catholics Meet

The Newman Club attempted to bring a religious atmosphere to the lives of Roman Catholic students on campus.

Folk masses, picnics, and group discussions were a few of the atmosphere-creating methods the members used. Father Robert Bush provided the masses; while, the students took the major part of the work load to get the picnics, dances and discussions going.

Nurses Learn Skills

Alpha Nu Chi attempted to give its members, students enrolled in the nursing program, the skills and leadership qualities necessary for the nursing profession.

The nursing students collected money to buy clothes for the Big Spring State Hospital patients during the Christmas season.

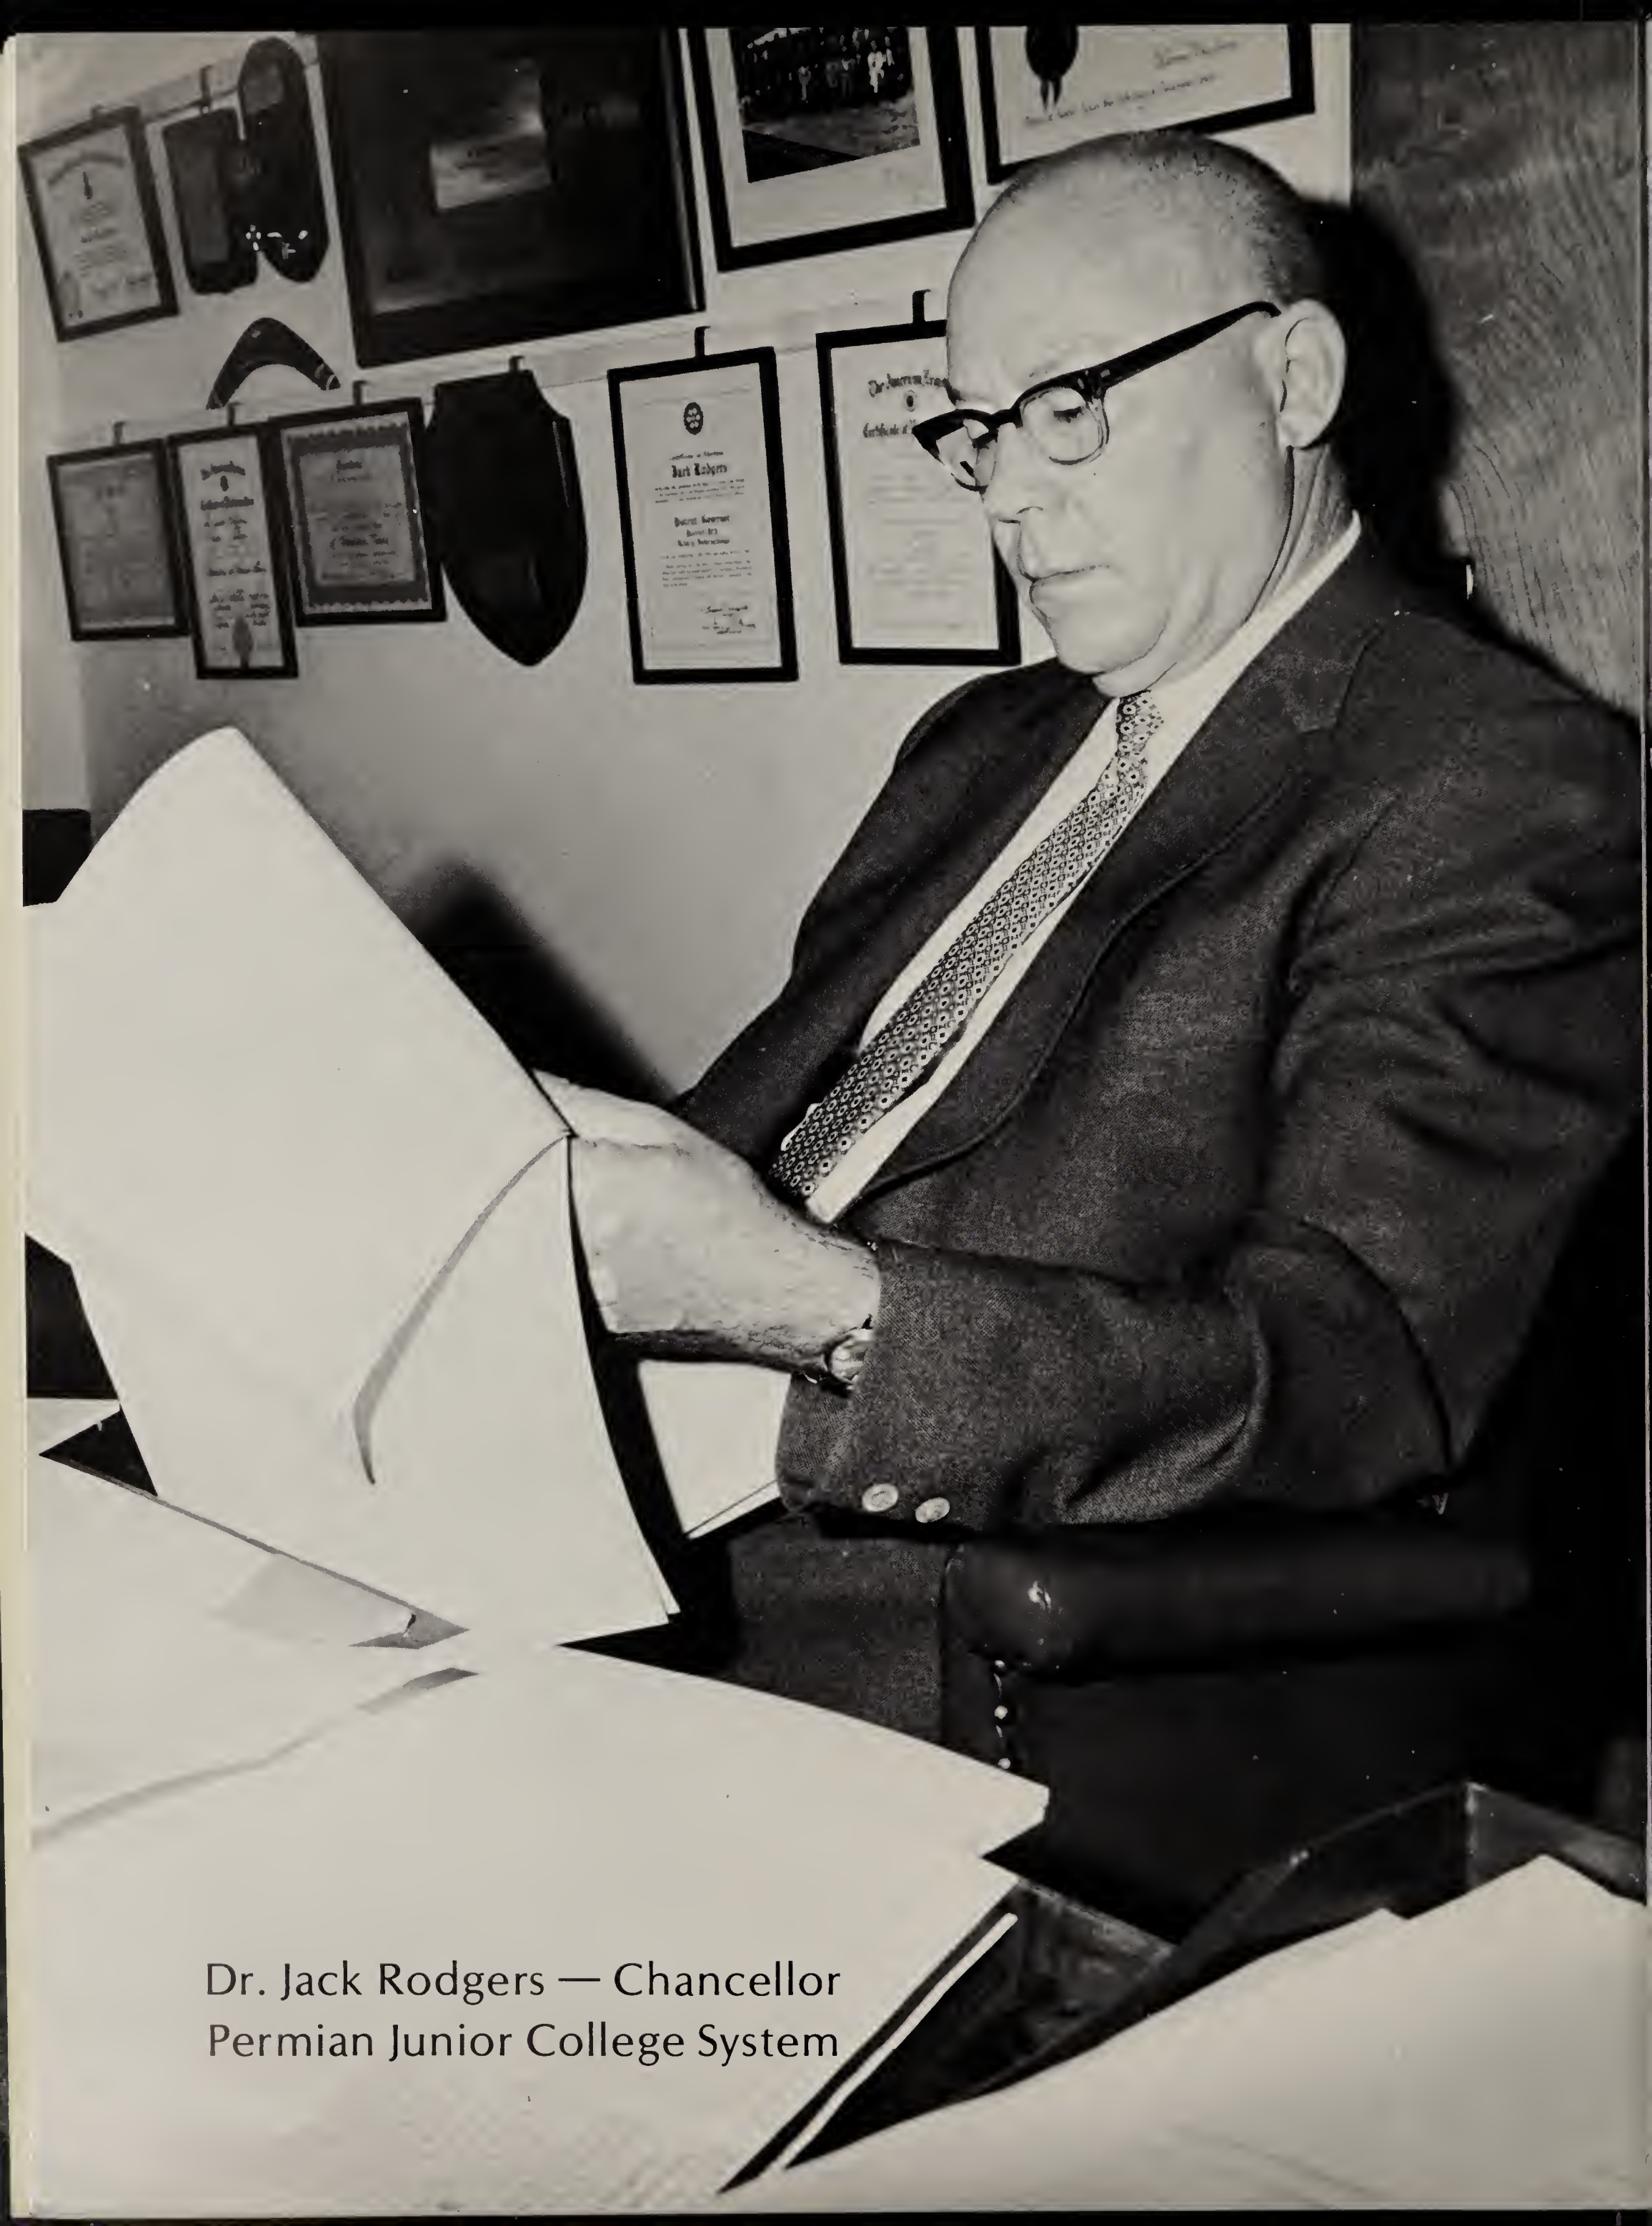

One way they got the money together was by having a car wash.

GAS WILL POWER THE FUTURE

Imagine a small cabinet-size unit in your home that produces all the electricity you need. Well, such silent, efficient Gas fuel cells already exist and have proved themselves in actual operation.

They are the same in principle as those now powering our spacecraft. Research is proving that the most economical way to produce energy is to convert piped Gas at the point of use.

But that isn't surprising because Gas is almost pure energy.

FREEDOM

All men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by any government, with the gift of freedom, and it is every man's duty to God to preserve his own liberty and respect the liberty of others. Freedom is self control, no more, no less.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guides expressed in the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

THE TIMES ARE CHANGING

You bet the times are changing. Today, as never before, young people are contributing directly to our way of life . . . providing fresh ideas and energy; helping shape business and industry to the needs of people in these changing times.

At Texas Electric, keeping up with change is a big job. But we're working at it — combining the energy, ideas and enthusiasm of youthful employees with the resources and experience of some grayer heads.

That's what Texas Electric is all about. A group of people—young, older and in-between—working to provide the electric service which will make possible so many of the changes and improvements the future holds.

We have tried to give you a picture of everyday life on campus. And this picture is reflected in the faces . . . faces of hope, faces of happiness, faces of achievement. In these faces can be mirrored the world problems — racial tensions, wars, pollution, crime. Is there a solution? We have recorded the emotion-filled faces of youths who will be searching for these answers, with faith for the future.

Judi Halbert

Speak not of peoples and laws and Kingdoms, for the whole earth is My birthplace and all humans are My brothers.

— Gibran

Remember you the trails and forest we walked, with hands joined, ... as if we were hiding ourselves within ourselves?

— Gibran

Even in silence
Every face speaks,
Whispering secrets
Locked in thought.
